You think I'm an ig-no-rant savage and you've been so man-y plac-es, I guess it must be so But still I cannot see, if the sav-age one is me, how can there be so much that you don't know? You don't know... You think you own what-ev - er land you land on; the earth is just a dead thing you can claim; but I know ev - 'ry rock and tree and crea-ture has a life, has a spir-it, has a name. You think the on - ly peo-ple who are peo - ple are the peo - ple who look and think like you, but if you walk the footsteps of a strang-er you'll learn things you nev - er knew you nev - er knew. Have you ev - er heard the wolf cry to the blue corn moon, or asked the grinning bob-cat why he grinned? Can you sing with all the voic-es of the moun - tain? Can you paint with all the col-ors of the wind? Can you
