I know I stand in line un-til you think you have the time to spend an eve-nin' with me. And prac-tice ev-'ry day to find some clev-er lines to say to make the mean-ing come through. But if we go some place to dance, I know that there's a chance you won't be leav-in' with me. Then then I think I'll wait un-til the eve-nin' gets late and I'm a lone with you. The af-ter-wards we drop in-to a qui-et lit-tle place and have a drink or two. And time is right, your per-fume fills my head, the stars get red, and oh, the night's so blue.

then I go and spoil it all by say-in' some-thin' stu-pid, like "I love you". Fine

I can see it in your eyes that you de-spise the same old lines you heard the night be-fore. And though it's just a line to you, for me it's true and nev-er seemed so right be-fore. D. S. al Fine
