

Dark Hollow – Grateful Dead

VERSE 1:

[E* F* G*] I'd rather [A] be in [E] some dark [A] hollow
where the [A] sun don't [D] ever [A] shine then to [A] be at home [A7] alone [E] knowin that your gone would [A] cause me to [E] lose my [A] mind

CHORUS:

[G*] So [A] blow your [E] whistle [A] freight train take me [A] far on [D] down the [A] track I'm [A] going [A7] away, I'm [D] leaving [D7] today
I'm [A] going, but i [E] ain't comin' [A] back

VERSE 2:

I'd rather [A] be in [E] some dark [A] hollow
where the [A] sun don't [D] ever [A] shine
then to [A] be in [A7] some [D] big city, in a [A] small room, with [E] you on my [A] mind

Go To CHORUS

VERSE 3:

I'd rather [A] be in [E] some dark [A] hollow
where the [A] sun don't [D] ever [A] shine
then to [A] see you [A7] another [D] mans darlin', and to [A] know that you'll [E] never be [A] mine
