[A] when I was a [D] little bitty child [A] just up off the [E7] floor [A] We used to go down to [D] Granma's house [A] ev'ry month [E7] or [A] so. We'd have chicken pie and [D] country ham 'n' [A] homemade butter on the [E7] bread, but the [A] best darn thing about [D] Grandma's house was her [E7] great big feather [A] bed. It was

Nine feet tall and six feet wide, [D] soft as a downy [A] chick. It was made from feathers of forty 'leven geese, took a [B7] whole bolt of cloth for the [E7] tick. It'd [A] hold eight kids 'n' four hound dogs and a [D] piggy we stole from the [A] shed. We didn't get much sleep but we [D] had a lot of fun on [E7] Grandma's feather [A] bed.

[A] After supper we'd [D] sit by the fire, the [A] old floks'd spit and [E7] chew. [A] Pa would talk about the [D] farm and the war, and [A] Granny'd sing a [E7] ballad or [A] two. I'd sit and listen and [D] watch the fire 'till the [A] cobwebs filled my [E7] head. Next [A] thing I'd know I'd [D] wake up in the morning in the [E7] middle of the old feather [A] bed. It was

Nine feet tall and six feet wide, [D] soft as a downy [A] chick. It was made from feathers of forty 'leven geese, took a [B7] whole bolt of cloth for the [E7] tick. It'd [A] hold eight kids 'n' four hound dogs and a [D] piggy we stole from the [A] shed. We didn't get much sleep but we [D] had a lot of fun on [E7] Grandma's feather [A] bed.

[A]/// [D] ///[E7]/// [A]// Well I [A] love my Ma, I
 [D] love my Pa, I love [A] Granny and Grandpa [E7] too, I been
 [A] fishin' with my uncle, I [D] rassled with my cousin, I
 [E7] even kissed Uncle [A] Lou. (ooo) But If I ever had
 [D] to make a choice, I [A] guess it oughta be [E7] said.
 That'd I'd [A] trade 'em all plus [D] guy down the road for [E7] Grandma's feather [A] bed. I'd trade 'em all plus the [D] guy down the road. (stop hold) (n.c.) It was
